Park'N Fly's Response to Novel Coronavirus (COVID-19)

Dear valued customer,

In these uncertain times, I wanted to reach out to you personally to share what Park'N Fly is doing to support both our customers and our employees.

As it has always been, the health and safety of our customers and employees is our top priority. In response to the Coronavirus, we have these measures in place designed to maintain a safe and healthy environment for our employees and customers:

- Personal Protection: Availability of antibacterial hand sanitizers at all our facilities and shuttle buses for customers and employees
- Facilities and Equipment: Routine cleaning and sanitizing of high touch surface areas such as counters, pay stations
- Shuttle Buses: Sanitization and surface cleaning of all shuttle buses

Whether you are travelling now or in the future, our company will be ready to welcome you and provide you with the Park Happy experience you have come to expect from Park'N Fly.

We thank you for your support.
