No tracking of free days is required, Park'N Fly tracks it for you!

How the free day program works:

- Every 10 parking days your agency's clients redeem a reservation in the previous quarter = 1 Free Day of parking for your agency
- Provide your client with a Park'N Fly e-coupon, or create a customized parking reservation for your clients via our Travel Agent Portal
- Unique discount code for client reservations is included on agency e-coupon
- Your client uses agency discount code when reserving their stay
- Park'N Fly is able to track the redemption back to your agency
- Each quarter, your agency receives free parking vouchers based on the number of days collectively that your clients redeem reservations in the previous month
